WIA Fiscal and Youth Council Training Now Offered

The Local Training Response Unit (Training Unit) of the Workforce Investment Division (WID) will provide a new training workshop on Workforce Investment Act (WIA) Fiscal Requirements.

This one-day pilot workshop is designed for both new staff and those with some fiscal experience at the Local Workforce Investment Board (LWIB) level. The workshop topic areas include: Scope of the WIA federal fiscal requirements and systems, One-Stop centers, Memorandum of Understanding, allowable costs, cost allocation/cost pooling, equipment and record keeping.

This pilot workshop is scheduled for December 7, 2000, in Sacramento, and is limited to 30 participants. Those interested in attending this training workshop should complete and fax the registration form located at: www.edd.ca.gov/wiatrform.htm#enrolling

This workshop will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis of registrations received via mail or fax, with a two-person limit per each LWIB. As this is only a pilot workshop, future sessions will be scheduled in various locations throughout California.

The Training Unit is also providing Youth Council Training for Trainers. These classes are intended for staff responsible for the development and operation of local youth councils. Workshops have been scheduled at the following locations. Please call the contact persons listed below directly if you are interested in attending this workshop:
